

Harriettes' Run 2057 on Wednesday 11 May, 17:30.

Location: The Junction Restaurant, at the Taling Chan Junction RR Station (สถานีรถไฟชุมทางตลิ่งชัน)

Hare: Short-Shorts

Restaurant telephone: 097-040-8111

Map Coordinates: 13.790174, 100.439723

Misdirs:

1.) By SRT Red Line

Go to Bang Sue Grand (the MRT Blue Line is convenient, take Exit 2 and follow the signs to the RR station Red Line), buy your token, go up to Platform 9; trains leave every 30 minutes on the half hour, takes about 25 minutes to Taling Chan Junction.

After exiting the toll turnstiles at Taling Chan Junction, walk out to the front of the station to Liap Thang Rot Fai Rd, turn left, and walk about 30m to the corner of the building, turn left as if to re-enter the building (you can't, entrance is blocked by construction), keep going and enter the hallway, turn right, go down the stairs, through the tunnel under the tracks, and exit at the car park on the other side of the tracks. The Junction Restaurant is across the road, to your left. (Be careful - fast traffic.)

2.) By Taxi Drop-off at the RR Station

When you get out of the taxi at the RR station, follow the above dirs thru the tunnel under the tracks to the restaurant on the other side of the tracks.

2.A.) From the Bang Wa BTS Silom Line or MRT Blue Line stations, it's about 6 km north on Rte 3021, Ratchapreuk Road. After you pass under Rte 338, the elevated Boromratchachononi Road (ถนนบรมราชชนนี) interchange, keep to the left, and look for these signs:

On Chim Plii Road go about 1/2 km to a T-intersection (no sign for the RR station, but there is a blue sign for the airport), turn right, go 200 m to the tracks, and then go left to the RR station.

2.B. From the Bang Kun Non MRT Blue Line station, it's about 3 km to the Taling Chan RR Station on the "Liap Thang Rot Fai Rd" (ถนน เลียบทางรถไฟตลิ่งชัน). The road takes you directly to the Taling Chan RR Station.

2.C.) From the north, e.g, from the Nakhon In Road, as you approach Rte 6, the elevated Sirat Expressway interchange, there are a couple of small white "Liap Thang Rot Fai Rd" signs on the left. Ignore them. Continue straight under the Sirat Expressway overpass.

Picture 2: Heading south, look for this sign --->

When you see the small Red Line Taling Chan Station sign (picture above), move quickly into the left U-turn lane, make the U-turn under Ratchapreuk Road, head back north for about 400m on Ratchapreuk, keep left, and follow the dirs (re: Picture 1 above) for making the left turn onto Chim Plii road.

2.D. From Chatuchak on the Sirat Expressway, get off at Exit 6. It is well marked to the RR station.

3.) By Taxi or Private Car Parking at the Restaurant

Same dirs as for the taxi thru and around those awful interchanges. Then pass the Taling Chan RR Station (on your right) on Liap Thang Rot Fai Rd, continue for about 1 1/4 km to a U-turn overpass, and return to the station. Turn left through the restaurant gate (HHH sign) and park.
